(Original masthead for OKChistory.com)

With the debut of www.okchistory.com in July 2007, we introduce features that will be updated week to week, including "OKC History's Attic," photos and stories you won't find elsewhere; OKC Then and Now, comparison photos of the city over decades; "News," with links to stories in publications about important historic city sites and events; a list of OKC history books; and links to other sites relating to Oklahoma City history.

OKC History was founded by Steve Lackmeyer and Jack Money, who also provide its content, and the web page design is by Martin Milner.
